

The 18xx games are on page 2 onwards in the order of starting. Outpost M13 is on p12, St. Petersburg M4 is on p13 and The Games That You Play is on p14. 18EUX35 comments are below.

New Games: 18EUJ38 starts below.

Gosh, this issue is appearing as per the olden days - the second Tuesday after the deadline. It is a modern miracle!

18EUJ38

GAMESTART

I chose the 4 players on the waiting list with the fewest current games (rolling a die to further choose between Don & Mike R).

As a result you are ... in dealing order ... David Roffey, David Hooton, Mike Ruffhead, Stephen Webb.

The emails to kick off the game will go out alongside this issue.

COMMENTS

Stephen 1st This has to be one of the smoothest EUs I have ever had the pleasure to play. If only I knew how to do it every time!

John 2nd I got off to a bad start when I made a stupid error in the Minors auction and let Don get Minor #7 which I wanted to go with my #4. I ended the auction with only 3 Minors which meant I didn't earn as much in ORs 1&2 as the others and I felt that I was staring at a fairly conclusive last place. I managed to get some sort of network with Minors #1 & #2, but when the 4s came out #4 was stuck going nowhere fast and it seemed that the only way that I'd get anything from it was to use all its cash to build through the mountains towards K10 and N11 and hope to get a company share in exchange for it in the Final Exchange Round. My SNCB, formed from Minors #1 & #2 slowly expanded its network, but with lowish earnings so I wasn't in a position to start another public company and decided to invest in what appeared to be the best companies.

As the game progressed Stephen walked away from the rest of us and somehow I found myself second just ahead of David. Then came the Final Exchange Round when I was able to swap my virtually worthless Minor #4 for a nice KKOS share which helped to push me further ahead of David an advantage that I was able to keep to the end of the game, although I never did close on Stephen. Congratulations to Stephen on a fine win, thanks to David and Don for the game and especial thanks to Rob for running it.

David 4th This time I tried running three companies, but mishandled it and got third. Congratulations to Stephen on the win and thanks to Rob for running it.

The CGR ran for $670 last time and not $570 as reported. Cash adjusted. In OR13 the highest dividends were earned by the player ending the round with the highest value, the second highest dividends by the player with the second highest end value and so forth. Fascinating eh?

The OR14 operating order is - CV, TGB, BBG, CA, CGR, WR.

We pass through the 5 trains and into the 6 trains. Some tiles were in scarce supply. Some orders said "Lay A & B" with no other valid tile order presented. A was possible but B was not. I decided to do A and not have it that A should only go ahead if B was possible. If another valid tile order had been given I would executed that in preference.
