

The 18xx games are on page 2 onwards in the order of starting. Outpost M14 is on p10 & St. Petersburg M4 is on p11. The Games That You Play is on p12. 18EUJ38 comments are on p3.

New Games: A four-player 1856 starts below for Graham L , Tim P, Ian P & John S. Another 1856 will start next time for George L< Tony S, John S & Don S. Thank you all for your responses on number of players and number of games. The initial randomisation - based on your answers - gave me those first two games.

Just past my standard intent of publication on the Tuesday before the Friday 2 weeks before the deadline.

1856P38END

A proposal to end this game with the current player order as the final order was accepted unanimously. Thus Graham Lee is the winner - followed by George Lucas, Ian Pendlebury, Mike Bennett & Andy Muir. Any comments received will be printed next time.

Thanks to all for an interesting game and thanks to Robert for his adjudication. Fortunately, the game ended when it did. With the ByE stock price stuck in the corner the game gets quite a bit closer had it continued through an entire set of OR's.

Tim P 3rd

Well done to Mike on a fine win. A consistent strategy throughout, making ByE very profitable. I was doing OK until I completely messed it up in OR10. That cost me a lot of money. As so often, attention to detail is very important, and I let my attention slip. Many thanks to Rob for the administration, adjudications, arbitration, etc. It's a lot of work and we all appreciate it. We all enjoy the games very much.

Tony S 5th

I really enjoy playing 1835, but still have not mastered the correct strategies. Right from the start the KM minor was blocked by BM so could not utilise its capacity for a second train; a move which did the owner no good as it appears he will finish 4th to my 5th. After that, I was OK until I bought a major (HeE) but I just did not get it going (routes westward were blocked) and gradually fell behind in % terms as I could not get the revenue raised quickly enough to buy more shares. Lessons learned; but will I apply them?

A full set of ORs next time I think - which will most likely be the last three of this game. As we enter that final set Mike & Tony are neck and neck. This time Mike earned more in dividends and Tony had the greater gain in stock value.

The OR17 operating order is - C&O, B&O, Erie, PRR, B&M, NYC, NYNH, CPR.

Mike earns the least in dividends and his stock value increase was about to slow right down what with the ByE hitting peak stock value - but timing is everything and he gains a well crafted victory.

COMMENTS

Mike R 1st

I have always wanted to see what could be accomplished by the chain of minors between Paris and Berlin, but never been allowed to assemble all the components before. I think we can now say without fear of contradiction that it can prove rather profitable...

David H 3rd

I made a £10 mistake in OR1 which prevented me from buying two 3-trains in OR3 and doing well. Meanwhile the failure for 4-trains to break in OR3 gave a huge cast boost to Mike. Congratulations to Mike on his victory and thanks to Rob for running it.

18EUJ38 : STANDARD GAME

END - WON BY MIKE

As advertised, we stop after OR15 because a 5 train was bought in OR16. The GCR Receiver still wants to lay on L6 and M7 and will keep trying to do so whilst employed.
