

The 18xx games are on page 2 onwards in the order of starting. RR2298DX is on p10, Outpost M15 is on p11, St. Petersburg M5 is on p12 and The Games That You Play is below.

New Games: The 1830 will start next time with the five on the waiting list. The 1829 North will follow one or (probably) two issues after that.

Another issue is flushed out the door. It was now or over the coming weekend ... so push came to shove.

COMMENTS

- Tim P 1st Many thanks to you, Rob, for running this game, and also to all the other players for the ideas that they put into the game. There was a lot of interesting action leading up to the launch of PrE, both in the share dealing and in the buying of trains. I was fortunate that it worked out well for me. Please put me down for another 1835.
- George L 2nd Well it was a close run thing for second place, I thought I had lost it, in fact a result so good it was mentioned twice.
My thanks to Rob for looking after us and to all the players for a tight game.
- Tony S 4th Still a “steep Learning Curve”. I think I really need to spend time getting some proper provisional buys written; some of those by the opponents must often be quite complex! Well done to Tim and thanks to Rob for GMing

My request for OR13 was premature - SR7 comes first. In the event an 8 train was bought in OR12 so stopping after that round is apposite. Next time we will stop after SR7 if any company changes hands or if a new company is floated. If we get into the ORs we will have a maximum of 3 and possibly fewer.

The website report asked for SR8 and the .pdf report did not - so some of you sent orders for that round and some did not. No matter - we can finish the game next time. But, for form's sake, I will say that we will stop after SR8 next time if any company changes president during SR8.

NEXT TIME - OR3 & OR4

MIKER stays in front going into the last round ... but doesn't expect to do well in it. So has he done enough already? GRITS has the winds of fortune behind him this time (mostly at the expense of GRASS) and is the closest contender with SHE & GITCO keeping in contact.

Run 29 was a solo effort by MIKER and the GITCO turned a slight route advantage in run 30 into a clear victory with GRITS making a late surge to take second place from GRASS. MIKER romped home in run 31 and run 32 went uncontroversially with length. SHE & WEBBS turned out for run 33 and SHE had the edge of the dice and won by one hex. In run 34 GRITS once again rolled just that one pip better than GRASS. GRITS then rolled blithely onwards to take the last run in style.
