

The 18xx games are on page 2 onwards in the order of starting. Outpost M16 is on p11, St. Petersburg M5 is on p12 and The Games That You Play is on p13.

New Games: A couple of potential players commented on the map to be used for the new Railway Rivals game. Of course the preference of one was a preferred no-go for the other. So, swayed by the maps I could locate in electronic form (so that I could do all the track-marking so you won't have to) I have selected Tokyo and the Kanto Plain, North German & East Anglia for consideration. These maps have been emailed to the waiting players with instructions on how to react. Meanwhile there are waiting list spaces for all.

This issue sees Tony Osborne win an 1829 game yet again with the conclusion of 1829 W40. Mike Bennett ran him close - most impressive for somebody who was on only his second game of 1829 and was up against venerable and steeped competition. In other game-ending news the ever-fancied Mike Ruffhead wins 1830C41 with a greater margin of victory.

Right, that's another issue essentially done. The weather is closing in for at least some of us - or so it seems. But really it's not at all bad in the south-east of the UK, not when compared to what it was like in the years of my younger self. And nowhere near like this guy I know in Winnipeg who claims to reckon that it is cold only when the temperature in Fahrenheit is lower than the same temperature expressed in Centigrade.

Tony's timing secures a splendid victory. Many congratulations to him and to all players for a great game but especially Mike B for doing so very well in only his second game of 1829. The northern network was the like of which we have never seen before. I have comments from Tony O & Mike R and they will be printed next time along with any others received.

In OR16 the NER ran for 150 and not 110 as reported. The relevant cash values have been adjusted.

And now - a clarification about the 4+4E trains. The question was asked - does at least one of the 4 stations used have to be garrisoned? The rules are silent on this point. I am going with "No" on the basis that (I paraphrase) "the route must include at least one station with the company's Station Marker" and "the 4+4E train uses (chooses) four stations on the route".

Meanwhile, Andy takes "drastic action" and the last company floats. OR18 only next time by request.

The BaE & WtE are floated and the MsE & OIE are ripe for the picking. If the PrE is formed in OR8 then your Minors & Privates will stay out of it unless you state otherwise. If the PrE is formed in OR8 you will of course have another chance to merge your relevant companies in at the start of OR9.

George did not say which station at L6 would hold the BaE home base and I have not been able to contact him. So I have made a choice of the station between K5 & L8. So please be aware that it might change - and if does change then I will let you know.
