

The 18xx games are in order of starting from p2 onwards. Railway Rivals RR2416NIL is on p9, Outpost M17 is on p10, Puerto Rico M1 ends on p11 & p12, Puerto Rico M2 is on p13 & p14. The Games That You Play is below.

New Games: There is an 1830 starting below for the four on the waiting list. Can I get one more for a St. Petersburg? I suspect that it will be a closely fought game and well worth you getting in amongst the action.

As per last time please advise if the deadline creates any difficulties and we will take appropriate action.

The Zine Poll results have just been published - only the placings without the minutiae and analysis of the Average Vote Score and Preference Matrix Ranking. Minstrel improved its position but I am not sure that is significant given my perceived volatility in the system. For the record the top nine this year are ...

- | | | |
|----------------|----------------------------------|--|
| 1 Ode | 4 Dane's Games (Dane Maslen) | 7 Where Is My Mind? |
| 2 Variable Pig | 5 Open Management (Mick Haytack) | 8 Devolution |
| 3 Hopscotch | 6 Minstrel | 9 ...mais n'est-ce pas la gare? (Steve Thomas) |

Dane's Games, Open Management and ...mais n'est-ce pas la gare? were all outside of the top ten last year - so noticeable increases for Dane & Mick. The top three are unchanged from last year and I think that they are a cut above the rest in terms of recipient affection.

Okay, enough of that warbling. The next issue will be a record thirteenth in one year and will not be a Christmas special.

Well, that was jolly civilised. Three purchases made without any hint of competition.

Next time we will stop after OR3 if a 3 train is bought during OR3 ... which would mean that there would be a merger round before OR4.

Mike's city is full and the colonist supply has run out - so it is game over. Mike takes his expected victory, John is second and Tony beats Brad to third place courtesy of the tie-breaker rules. Thank you for being guinea pigs for Puerto Rico in Minstrel and for living with and through my transcription errors. Any comments received will be printed next time.
