

The 18xx games are in order of starting from p2 onwards. Outpost M18 is on p11, Puerto Rico M2 ends on p12 & p13, St. Petersburg M6 is on p14. The Games That You Play is on P11. 1856Y42 comments are below.

New Games: Please see below for a proposal for the next Railway Rivals game. I would like to start an 1830 as the waiting Andy M does not have a game at present - so do we have one or more additionally interested?

I need to lose the weight that I put on in lockdown. I have admitted that Covid-19 does not shrink clothes. My badminton has resumed and I have cut back on the acquired bad habits ... but it is going to take some time.

COMMENTS

- Graham Thanks to Rob for running the game and sorting out various complications.
- Ian I would like to thank Rob for the substantial time and effort he spent moderating this game. Congratulations to Graham on another win in a game of 1856. One day he might get bored with winning !
Apologies to Brad for suggesting that he might have been engineering a bankruptcy option. I now realise that this was not the case.
I would also like to thank Andy for the track laying cooperation our companies had in the North East.
- Tony Nothing much to add. All a learning curve. Managed to get myself into 2nd best earner by the end.... just another 4 or 5 ORs and I would have been up to 2nd overall. Unfortunately the game isn't won like that. Thanks to all for an enjoyable game.

RR HS2 GAME(S)

PRE-GAMESTART

You are Christian Bien, David Hooton, Mike Ruffhead, Tony Sait & John Webley.

I am proposing that the next RR game(s) be on one or both of the HS2 maps from Richard Smith. These are based on the familiar London & Liverpool map with additions "inspired" by the UK's High Speed 2 project. This page has a link to that project's wiki page and also has links to both maps.

Please have a look and let me know whether you would like to play a game using the Private Sector variant, a game using the Build, Build, Build variant or even two games (one of each variant). Hopefully your responses will allow at least one, and maybe two, game to be started. Once the responses are in I will advise the outcome and request preferences for the game start(s) which I hope will be in next Minstrel.

We stop after SDR4 as the Midland was floated during that round. And now we will try for another set of four rounds with the usual caveats. So ... next time we will stop after SDR5 if a 3 train was bought in OR4 or if any company experienced a new or changed director in SDR5.
